

LOCAL ITEMS AND PERSONALS

Matters Briefly Mentioned
Little Happenings
Personal Notes

CALL POST-DISPATCH OFFICE
Phone 182

Watch your label.

Phone Post-Dispatch 182, your items of news.

Born, Tuesday night to Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Norton, a son, John Henry. This is their seventh child.

T. J. Campbell, former football coach at Chapel Hill, will be head coach of the freshman team at Harvard next fall.

Judge T. D. Bryson, who recently held a term of court here, was married July 16th to Miss Zulia Ketchie, of Rowan county.

Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, has accepted invitation to speak at the Harnett county Fair at Dunn Saturday, Oct. 15th.

Miss Casey Jones will return to Rockingham on Friday of next week, and the following day Miss Anna Leak Ledbetter will accompany her back to Rockville, Maryland, for a visit.

Until October Miss Susie Shipp's address will be "33 Prospect avenue, Larchmont Manor, care of Mr. S. L. Mims, New York."

When you have visitors, or expect visitors, or go off yourself, let other folks know of it through the Post Dispatch. Phone or write this paper your local items.

"The Microbe of Love" will be presented at Monroe by Monroe talent on Aug. 4th. This is the show that Rockingham talent gained imperishable glory in presenting here several weeks ago.

Rev. W. M. Huggins began a revival at Lower Macedonia Baptist church, in Chesterfield county, the 11th, with two services daily—at 11 and 8:30. It is proving very successful and will last until the end of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Helms and Jay Helms left Wednesday morning in their Franklin Sedan on a trip of three weeks or more to relatives in Pennsylvania and to visit other points north. They were joined at Raleigh by Miss Mary Bynum Paris, of Wilson, who was a member of the local school faculty last year and who boarded with the Helms.

Mrs. Hill Parsons and children returned today (Thursday) from a two weeks' visit in Martinsville Va.

Miss Hattie Marks returned today (Thursday) from a visit since Monday to Mrs. T. T. Cole in Charlotte.

Miss Whilmina Rees arrived from Lincolnton at noon today (Thursday) to spend a week with Miss Florence Covington.

Mr. S. V. Hasty returned last Friday night from Asheville where he spent two weeks at the Biggs Sanatorium taking treatment for asthma.

Mrs. B. F. Palmer is the proud owner of twin heifer calves, born Monday morning. The mother is a Jersey and sire an Ayrshire, and the calves are fine specimens.

Mrs. J. W. Bolton and three children arrived from Fries, Va., Wednesday night to visit Mrs. John Allred. Her husband will drive down the last of the month for a visit.

Harry Levin left Wednesday for New York to buy goods for the new store that he is to open about the first of August in the Arensen stand; the store will be called "The Hub."

Mrs. T. T. Cole and daughter returned to Charlotte last Saturday. Mrs. Cole is much improved; she has been at the home of Dr. W. P. Webb ill with ptomaine poisoning and colitis.

The many friends of Mrs. J. W. Bethel will be glad to know that she will make her home in the city, arriving last Friday; she will stay at the home of Mr. Beverly T. Payne.

Baxter McLendon began a big tent meeting at North Wilkesboro July 17th. John H. Jones, the noted evangelistic singer, will lead the singing. "Cyclone Mack" just closed the most successful meeting ever held in Asheville.

The following young ladies will go to the Carolina Country Club at the Everett pond Friday to remain until Monday: Misses Florence Covington and guest, Miss Rees Louise Diggs, Mary Louise Everett, Mary Leak Scales, Anna Leak Ledbetter and Addie Webb.

Rev. Howard Hartzell conducted services at the Episcopal church last Sunday morning, and the congregation was delighted with his sermon and his conduct of the service. He and Mrs. Hartzell left Wednesday for their home at Smithfield.

DON'T envy the big fellow—

Use your head and Be one—

"HONESTLY IT'S THE BEST POLICY"

PAYNE.

W. C. (Goot) STEWART
AUTO FOR HIRE
Day and Night

Prices Reasonable.
Phone: Residence 249, Business 353

Mabel Sharp, of Charlotte, is spending this week with Barbara Pendergrass.

Mr. R. F. Church and Misses Effie Clark and Myrtle Hamilton spent from Saturday to Monday at Wrightsville Beach.

Service at Presbyterian church Sunday morning as usual. Sunday night union service at Methodist church.

Mrs. S. S. Steele and children returned Monday from a two weeks' visit in Greensboro.

Miss Inez Edgerton, of Kenly, arrived in the city Tuesday to spend a week or so with Miss Ophelia Ormond.

It rained on Tuesday, July 12th, the first dog day, and if the old Dutch saying is to be believed, there will be forty days of dampness.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Dalton and three children are expected from High Point Saturday to spend the week-end with their kinsman, Mr. W. E. Harrison.

Carl Coley came home Wednesday night from Norfolk where he has been staying with Charlie McCollum since the University closed.

Billy McAulay came home Sunday for a few days. He is with the Chapin-Sacks ice cream people, and will be here until he receives instructions to what town to report.

Material is being placed for the erection of a six-room bungalow for W. M. Fowlkes on the corner of Green and Lawrence streets. The bungalow will front Lawrence street, and will be about eight feet above ground; this will place it about three feet above the street level.

The Monroe-Rockingham tennis match scheduled for Wednesday, was postponed on account of rain. The Monroe players, Amos Stack and J. W. Love, came here on the noon train ready for play, but Jup. Play ruled otherwise.

The White Star liner Olympic on which were Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Wall, sailed from New York Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. On board were 650 first, 440 second and 900 third class passengers bound for Cherbourg and Southampton. With this voyage the Olympic holds a record of more than 2,050 first cabin passengers embarked or landed at New York within the span of three weeks. On June 25th she took out 780 in first cabin, a record for the port since 1914. On July 13th she came in with 677 in first cabin, and now last Saturday the outward bound trip had 651 in the first class. The Walls had mighty good company: Thomas F. Ryan, the diamond mine owner; Edward N. Hurley, former chm of the Shipping Board; Mrs. Mortimer Schiff, the Charles Scribners, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of the late Roosevelt; William Phillips, our Minister to the Netherlands, etc.

SOCIAL

(Continued)

Mrs. Dan McCall entertained at Rook on Tuesday morning, at her home on Randolph St., with her house-guest Mrs. Regan McIntyre, of Lumberton, as honoree. Six tables were arranged in the living room and hall where the game was thoroughly enjoyed for more than an hour, when the hostess served delicious refreshments.

The town officials enjoyed a "get together" affair at the Carolina Country Club on Monday evening.

Mr. LeGrand Everett, Jr., left Friday night for Chapel Hill whither he went by request to take his part in the two entertainments given on Monday and Tuesday evenings by the "Play-makers", the Dramatic Club of the University of N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Entwistle will entertain a house-party out at Kill Kare Klub, at Ledbetter's, next week. There will be about fifteen guests.

Miss Mamie Steele, accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Leak and Misses Dale Shaw and Heloise Smith, leave Friday for Blowing Rock in Miss Steele's car, to be driven by Mr. Randolph Leak. They will visit Linville and several places in the mountains, before returning to the city a week hence.

Mrs. Henry D. Ledbetter is visiting friends and relatives in Carthage.

Mr. R. R. Simmons is confined to his home and bed suffering from deep cold.

Mrs. J. C. Davis and daughter, Miss Alice Davis, are spending sometime in Wilmington visiting relatives.

Messrs. Frank Steele and William Scales are spending the week at Wrightsville Beach.

Dr. J. M. Ledbetter is confined to his bed with an attack of influenza.

Friday afternoon at the Covington home on Washington street, Misses May, Faith, and Eleanor Covington delightfully entertained the guests of Miss Mary Entwistle, Misses Georgia Hoar and Pat Ransom, of New Jersey. Eight tables were arranged in the living room and library, where Rook was enjoyed, for sometime. Finally the cards were collected and the hostesses served ice cream and cake.

Mrs. J. P. Leak entertained at four tables of Bridge Monday evening complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius K. Waddill of Cheraw.

Mrs. F. W. Leak made the highest score. A handsome deck of cards was given to both the honorees. Delicious refreshments were served. Enjoying Mrs. Leak's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Waddill, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. L. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. London, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Everett, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Leak, Mrs. George Shannhouse, Miss Sarah Lilly Dockery, Miss Nancy Fairley, Mr. Ozmer L. Henry, and Mrs. Hartzell.

Mr. D. L. Gore spent Tuesday night in Rockingham with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gore, en route to McColl to a meeting of the stock-holders of the Marlboro Cotton Mills.

Miss Elizabeth Brewer is spending the summer with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Brewer, on Everett Heights. Miss Brewer last month graduated at Guillemont Organ School, in New York, and took her Organ Degree in the American Guild of Organists, of which she is a member.

News received in the city by relatives from Florence, S. C., tells of the arrival of a daughter, Wednesday, in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith. Mrs. Smith was Miss Minnie Garrett before her marriage. Mother and baby are at Dr. McLeod's Infirmary, in Florence, S. C. The little lady is named Terrell Louise.

Mrs. Walter E. Storey arrived from Burlington last Friday for a two weeks' stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas, on Randolph St.

Mrs. Milton Fowlkes and Frances Fowlkes left Wednesday morning for Florence, S. C. from where they will go later to Southport for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. T. A. Covington was hostess at four tables for the Married Ladies' Rook Club on Friday afternoon at her home on Washington street. After several progressions the hostess served delicious ice cream and cake. Mrs. Covington's special guests were: Mesdames S. W. Steele, Geo. P. Entwistle, A. L. McDonald, LeGrand Everett, John Morrison, Stevie Lowdermilk, Smith Henry and Miss Bright Henry and Mrs. Leslie, guests of Mrs. B. F. Reynolds.

Miss Concord Leak is expected to return home Friday from Anderson, S. C., whither she has been visiting her former school-mates, the Misses Glenn.

On Friday morning of last week Mrs. LeGrand Everett, at her home on Randolph St. entertained at a most delightful Rook party in honor of Miss Concord Leak and her guest, Miss Hamlin Landis, of Charlotte. The home was unusually pretty on this occasion being decorated with a wealth of summer flowers from Mrs. Everett's garden. Five tables were arranged for the game in the living room and library, which was enthusiastically enjoyed for more than an hour. Afterwards the hostess served refreshments to Miss Concord Leak and Miss Hamlin Landis, honorees, Misses Elizabeth and Kath, Octavia and Mary Leak Scales, Florence Covington, Ruth Covington, Sara Lilly Dockery, Berta and Mamie West, Ruth Harrison, Sara Everett and guest, Martha McKeller, of Memphis Tenn., Mary Entwistle and guest, Georgia Hoar and Pat Ransom, Emma Grey Ledbetter, Anna Leak Ledbetter and guest, and Mrs. I. S. London.

Mr. W. E. Thomas returned Sunday night from Charlotte, whether he has been under treatment for several months, much improved in health, to the delight of his many friends in the city, and community.

Mr. William E. Dockery went to Chapel Hill Wednesday to accept a position with the Thompson Bros. Construction Co. in the big University building operations now going on.

The family of Mr. T. C. Leak are at Ellerbe Springs for the summer. They are occupying the Leak Cottage.

Mrs. W. N. Everett, Jr., entertained the members of her Bridge Club this (Thursday) morning, in honor of Mrs. Cornelius Waddill of Cheraw. Dainty score cards attached to Japanese fans were given out directing each guest to her place at one of the three tables. After the usual progressions the cards were taken up and Miss Kathryn McDonald received, for making the highest score, a hand-painted box of fancy candies. Afterwards the hostess served fried chicken, creamed potatoes, pickle, asparagus on toast, hot buttered biscuit, followed by peach cream and angel-food cake.

E. B. Terry has an EXTRA SPECIAL on children's gingham dresses. One lot, sizes 3 to 16, sacrificed at 49c each. advt

E. B. Terry surely intends to get rid of his entire millinery stock, judging from the prices he is offering on all hats. advt

Charter Oak Camp.

Charter Oak Camp, No. 5, W. O. W., meets every Tuesday night at 7:45 in the hall over Swink's meat market, Rockingham. Visiting members are cordially invited. Regular members urged to attend with due regularity.

Sale Bills

If you need some come in and see us

NEW INTEREST QUARTER

July 1st

Deposits made in our Savings Department on or before July 5th will bear interest from July 1st.

We pay 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly, on Savings Deposits.

Save and Have.

The Bank of Rockingham

M. W. McRae President Dr. A. C. Everett, Vice-Pres.
B. F. Reynolds, Cashier

Open till 6 o'clock P. M. on Saturdays.